Pursuant to the SRMT Good Standing Policy, the Tribal Court is obligated to provide a judgement debtor three (3) reminder notices of their delinquent account. After six (6) months has passed since a payment has been made by the judgement debtor, the Court may transfer the judgement debtor's name to the SRMT Tribal Council or its designee the Finance Department. The Finance Department will verify the outstanding amount owed and mail the Defendant notice letters and send the debt to the Collection Agency and/or suspend tribal services.
