Our Easter Luncheon

We got a surprise drop in from the Easter Bunny at our Easter party! Everyone enjoyed the Easter hunt. Among the candy filled eggs were eggs with surprise tickets for big prize table along with a $20 Walmart gift card which was the last egg found by Elaine Cook. Here are our winners from the Easter hat parade:
Rose Jacobs: Most Creative
Barbara Lazore: Prettiest
Dorothy Cole: Luck of the draw

Vitals Checks

A nurse from the Tribe clinic will be coming every last Tuesday of the month and measuring height, weight and blood pressure for your own knowledge. They will be here May 31st from 11:00 am– 12:00 pm

We had 16 participants come out on that cold windy day. Everyone did as many laps as they could and surprised us every time. Our winners were:

1st Barbara Lazore
2nd Tim Rourke
3rd Kathy Mitchell
Participant Draw Donnie White

Everyone had such a great time and because we had so many participants, we will be having more poker walks!

Wednesday, May 4th
Get into spirit and wear your Star Wars gear! You could win a prize!
This past April 13, 2022 was National Scrabble Day. We celebrated by hosting a Scrabble Tournament. We started off with 4 games going with 8 players. The winners of the first round was Val Garrow, Lynn LaFrance, Carole Ross and Millie Cook. The second round winners were Carole and Lynn. Our first place winner was Lynn LaFrance and second place was Carole Ross. Lynn won a $20 Walmart gift card. Our four scrabble boards are always available to play anytime! We will have another tournament some time, everyone had a good time and enjoyed the snacks!

Healthy Meal Recipes for One: Stuffed Sweet Potato

Cheesy, spicy twice baked sweet potatoes are a complete meal for one. So simple to throw together and stuff with tasty fillings when you’re short on time and ingredients. Healthy and satisfying!

Prep time: 10 minutes
Cook time: 50 minutes
Total time: 1 hour, 5 minutes

Ingredients:
- 1 large sweet potato
- 1/2 cup black beans (rinsed and drained)
- 2 scallions thinly sliced
- 1/2 tsp cumin
- 1/4 cup pepper jack cheese, shredded
- 1/2 avocado, diced
- cilantro

Instructions:
1. Heat oven to 400 degrees. Poke holes all over the sweet potato with a fork. Bake directly on the oven rack for about 45 minutes or until soft.

2. Cut a slit in the potato and carefully scoop out the flesh, reserving the skin. In a small bowl mash sweet potato. Stir in black beans, scallions, chili powder, and cumin until well combined. Scoop the mixture back into the potato skin and top with shredded pepper jack cheese.

3. Place the potato on a baking sheet coated in foil. Put the potato back in the oven for 5 minutes, or until cheese melts.

May is National Osteoporosis Month
Food and Your Bones Osteoporosis Nutrition Guidelines

Osteoporosis is often called a “silent” disease because people cannot feel their bones getting weaker. Nearly 10 million Americans have osteoporosis and almost 34 million more have low density, putting them at risk for osteoporosis and broken bones. The food that you eat can affect your bones. Learning about the foods that are rich in calcium, vitamin D and other nutrients that are important for your bone health will help you make healthier food choices everyday. If you eat a well-balanced diet with plenty of dairy, fish, fruits and vegetables, you should get enough of the nutrients you need everyday, but if you’re not getting the recommended amount from food alone, you may need to complement your diet by taking multivitamins or supplements.

Good-for-your-Bones Foods
Dairy products such as milk, yogurt and cheese; canned sardines and salmon; collard greens, turnips greens, kale, okra, Chinese cabbage, mustard greens, broccoli; all contain calcium.

Fatty fish varieties such as salmon, mackerel, tuna and sardines all contain vitamin D. Calcium and vitamin D are sometimes added to dairy products, juices, breakfast foods, cereals and breads.

Spinach, beet greens, okra, tomato products, artichokes, plantains, potatoes, sweet potatoes, collard greens and raisins all contain magnesium.

Tomato products, raisins, potatoes, spinach, sweet potatoes, papaya, oranges, bananas, plantains and prunes contain potassium.

Red and green peppers, oranges, grapefruit, broccoli, strawberries, brussels sprouts, papaya and pineapple all contain vitamin C.

Dark leafy green vegetables such as kale, collard greens, spinach, mustard greens, turnip greens and brussels sprouts all contain vitamin K.

Risk Factors:
- Being female
- Older age
- Family history
- Low estrogen in women/low testosterone in men
- Inactive lifestyle
- Smoking or drinking too much alcohol
- Excessive intake of sodium or caffeine
- Medications such as steroids

Approximately 1 in 2 women and 1 in 4 men over the age of 50 will have an osteoporosis related fracture in their lifetime.

Katie here; I found this book in my desk that Lois Thomas gave me years ago for the newsletter. Hope some of these quotes give you a chuckle and remind you that you are not alone!

“Good catch, Lord! You flagged me before I inserted my Target card into the ATM slot.”

“I’m grateful, God. That you’re watching out for me when I’m not. You helped me get through the list of introductions at our homeowners party without missing a beat, I wish I’d asked you to help me remember my husbands name though...”

“O Lord, what is wrong with me? This morning I tried to crack an orange instead of an egg—until you tapped me on the shoulder. Thank you.”

“Thank you, God, for the stamina I needed to push the loaded supermarket cart from the store exit to my car. But what was I thinking after that? I opened the rear door of my car, dropped the cart off in the return area, and drove away. I left the groceries in the cart! Please let them still be there when I get back to the store.”

“Lord, I have to pay bills today. Please gently coach me to make sure I put the correct checks in the appropriate envelopes.”

“Lord, it’s a good thing I’m forgetful sometimes. It helps me avoid sharing gossip about a friend or a neighbor.”

“Father, I was pretty exasperated today when I tried to answer a phone call with the TV remote. Thank you for giving me a sense of humor so I can laugh at such silly mistakes.”
The SRMT Office for the Aging receives funding and support from the NYS Office for the Aging, Area Association on Aging, Title VI Native American Program, and the Tribal General Fund.
